

PERFORMANCE SCHEDULE

Saturday August 15, 2009

10:00 AM - 10:30 AM	Councillor Paul Ainslie (Welcome Speech)
10:30 AM - 11:00 AM	Dukes of Harmony (Barbershop Harmonies)
11:00 AM - 12:00 PM	Kevin Fell (African Folk Music)
11:00 AM - 12:00 PM	"Little Diggers" Workshop for Children by Sheridan Nurseries (Children's Area)
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM	Carlo Meriano (Current music)
1:00 PM - 2:00 PM	Native Canadian Centre (Dancing and Singing)
2:00 PM - 3:00 PM	Native Canadian Centre (Storytelling)
3:00 PM - 4:00 PM	Waking Up In Vegas (Current music)
4:00 PM - 4:30 PM	Yvonne Garson (Teller)
4:00 PM - 4:15 PM	Taoist Tai Chi Society of Canada - Special Demonstration
4:30 PM - 5:00 PM	Pat Bisset (Teller)
5:00 PM - 6:00 PM	The SteelBandits (Calypso music)
6:00 PM - 7:00 PM	Waking Up in Vegas (Current music)

Sunday August 16, 2009

11:00 AM - 12:00 PM	Dukes of Harmony (Barbershop Harmonies)
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM	Sandra Aubrey (Teller)
12:00 PM - 12:15 PM	Taoist Tai Chi Society of Canada - Special Demonstration
1:00 PM - 2:00 PM	Adele Koehnke & The Rockcliffe Players (Storytelling)
2:00 PM - 2:30 PM	Michele Braniff (Teller)
2.30 PM - 3:00 PM	Intermission
3:00 PM - 4.00 PM	Marion Scott & Heather Ferguson (Tellers)
4:00 PM - 5:00 PM	Carlo Meriano (Current music)

The Guild - Alive with Culture!

Photo: George Dunbar

For the Community by the Community

The Guild Alive with Culture

An Arts Festival

Saturday, August 15, 2009
10 am - 7 pm

Sunday, August 16, 2009
11 am - 5 pm

The Guild Inn Gardens, 201 Guildwood Parkway, Scarborough

- Artists' Market
- Musical performances
- Storytelling
- Guild Heritage Exhibits and Tours
- Community Group Showcase
- Children's Activities
- Food & Refreshments
- Farmers' Market
- Free Admission
- Free Parking

For information (416) 392-4008 www.paulainslie.com/TheGuildAlivewithCulture.html

Sponsored & supported by:

Councillor Paul Ainslie Scarborough East - Ward 43

Cedar Ridge Studio Gallery Cedar Ridge Creative Centre

Toronto Parks, Forestry & Recreation Mill St. Market SCARBOROUGH THE MIRROR COLLEGE YVANNINEZ Sheridan Bank of Montreal RMO Guildwood Village Community Association MORNINGSIDE CROSSING THE GUILD RENAISSANCE GROUP

GUILD ALIVE WITH CULTURE - AN ARTS FESTIVAL

Biographies for Selected Performers

Performance Schedule on Back Cover

THE STEELBANDITS

The SteelBandits consist of a core group of enthusiastic & energetic players that strive to create music to "Steel Your Soul". A love for steelband music, as well as their rich Caribbean heritage, is the driving force behind this band. The SteelBandits' extensive repertoire includes soca, calypso, pop, chutney, reggae, religious, classical, and Latin music.

From: <http://www.steelbandits.com>

THE DUKES OF HARMONY

A barbershop chorus of 40 men, of which 25 are in the performing chorus. Started in 1954, the Dukes have had a proud tradition of excellence in competing at the Ontario and international level. The Dukes a rich history including two international gold medals (Canada's first!).

From: <http://www.dukes-of-harmony.com>

PAT BISSET

Pat discovers....historical stories...

Pat can enchant both children & adult audiences alike. Pat's repertoire includes world myth, folk & fairy tales, and historic stories. Many of her stories involve audience participation poems, songs & singing games. Pat is closely associated with the Buffalo Jump Artists' Collective, and also a member of Bluffer's Tales and The Canadian Association of Storytellers for Children. Pat's selection of world myth, folk and fairy tales reflect Canada's cultural diversity.

MARION SCOTT

&

HEATHER FERGUSON

Tales Told 'Round the Campfire'

Heather has 22 years of experience in Children's Services & Marion has 27 years experience as a Children's Specialist, both with Toronto Public Library Storytelling Course. Both have told to children and their families at various venues around the city including Toronto Kids Tuesday Series at Nathan Phillips Square, Toronto Festival of Storytelling, Second Story, North York Winterlude Festival, Word on the Street, CBC's Cloud 9 and the 2008 Guild Alive With Culture - An Arts Festival.

HOZA! CREATIVE MEDITATIONS

Kevin Fell

&

Mohamed Diaby - Jembefola

Kevin is the founder of HOZA! Creative Mediation an arts-in-education company that helps students to put a stop to negative attitudes and behavior and begin living the life that they envision for themselves and the world.

Mohamed began playing the djembe at age seven. In April of 1995 Mohamed arrived in America to play at New York City's Symphony Space. Today, Mohamed travels around the world teaching and performing and is considered a world master drummer.

CARLO MERIANO

A songwriter who visits various genres with a different approach. When it comes to Electro, Carlo uses a $4.99 guitar he bought on a whim at Value Village. Carlo also plays the ukulele and the acoustic guitar.

Carlo's muse is the Twilight Zone, the classic episodes to be exact! Carlo however, is known to dabble in many other topics that allow him to express his quick wit in melody. From technology, affairs, truck drivers, vagabonds, Oprah & minimum wage, Carlo will have a song for you...or, at least, for someone you know!

WAKING UP IN VEGAS

A Toronto-based group of five individuals who blend a mixture of "fresh faced" pop music with the upbeat hooks of pop punk music.

ADELE KOEHNKE

&

THE ROCKCLIFFE PLAYERS

Adele Koehnke is a Scarborough resident and sole proprietor of Adele's Stories for over five years. She writes original interactive stories for listeners of all ages and often accompanies her upbeat tales with interactive artwork.

Adele assists in coordinating the very talented Rockcliffe Players in their dramatizations of the stories that they write as a group. The Rockcliffe Players and Adele appreciate the encouraging support from Scarborough's Leisureworld Rockcliffe staff, residents and the community.